CANCER PATIENCE: ONE COUPLE S COURAGEOUS BATTLE

iUniverse, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Before he died, my husband s last request was that I write a book about our struggle with cancer. In the months preceding his death, I kept a diary of our daily events, taking notes strictly regarding cancer. However, as I began to write the book, I was frequently reminded of his tremendous ability to intertwine humor with the gravity of his disease. My Bob, or Robert E. O Connor, was a lawyer with a fascinating mind and an unbelievable wit. I supplemented these diary entries with fond memories of our lives together. We made 16 trips to Mayo Clinic for Chemo treatments and these pages tell the story of the treatments, frustrations, drug side effects, and what we did about each incident. Throughout this time Bob never lost his faith, his hope, or his sense of humor. Agnes O Connor wrote this first book at the request of her dying husband, Robert E. O Connor. She tells the story of their daily lives as he battled his last fifteen months of cancer. Using a diary she kept at the time, O Connor skillfully intertwines fond memories of her husband with the sobering tale of his death. O Connor illustrates the physical pain, emotional stress, and extreme frustration...
