

Against Corporate Media: A Tract Against Propaganda Masquerading as News (Paperback)

By Carl Warwick

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . -Against Corporate Media- is a short manuscript laying bare the excesses and corruption of the long-established and centralized dissemination of information and news that comes from television, newsprint, and other largely monopolized forms of technology. Here, we can see the degrading interplay between a stagnated media and a stagnated political climate. What is the future of media? What role will social media on the internet play? These questions here are addressed, and television and newsprint corporations here find no friend.
