

Emma Lost Grandma (Paperback)

By Joy Cummings

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Four-year-old Emma loves playing with her puppy, helping her mommy, and watching the clouds outside. But most of all, she loves visiting her grandma s house-where it always smells like sugar cookies, and Grandma makes her feel like the most special little girl in the world. One day, Mommy is crying, and she tells Emma that Grandma is gone. This makes Emma sad, confused, and angry. Why isn t anyone looking for Grandma so they can take care of her? Maybe she s under the bed, or in the closet, or somewhere outside. But Mommy explains that Grandma was very sick and died-and that means Emma won t be able to see her anymore. She explains that it s okay to be sad and cry, and to miss someone who has died. For a while, Emma feels sad-even while playing with her puppy, and when helping her mommy. But eventually she experiences happiness again, when she realizes Grandma isn t truly gone-but still lives inside Emma s heart. And that remembering the great memories they shared is all it...
