

World of Made and Unmade (Paperback)

By Jane Mead

ALICE JAMES BOOKS, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. On the National Book Award Longlist for Poetry 2016 World of Made and Unmade is a deep blue yarn of very fine thread. We know much of poetry ever was and ever shall be elegiac. Jane Mead s poem could be neither more literal nor nearer the verge of appearing a little too perfect for this world. As the laundry room floods and the grape harvest gets done; as Michoacan waits for another time, her beautiful, practical mother is dying. Ashes are scattered in the pecan groves of her own Rincon, her own corner of the world, and the poet, in elementary script, draws a sustaining record of the only feeling worth the struggle, and she cannot, will not, does not fuck it up. --C.D. Wright Jane Mead s fifth collection candidly and openly explores the long process that is death. These resonant poems discover what it means to live, die, and come home again. We re drawn in by sorrow and grief, but also the joys of celebrating a long life and how simple it is to find laughter and light in the quietest and darkest...
