The series at hand comprise a series of this order, with sources, descriptions and illustrations. The plates are excellently executed. The notes can be obtained from the Lloyd Library at Cincinnati, O. Prescription Writing, t This is a presentation of elementary Latin as applied in prescription writing. Medical words and phrases are employed, and the treatment is similar to that followed in elementary Latin books. Some typical prescriptions, tables of terms, doses, etc., are included. A brief table of incompatibilities is given, which for pharmacists would be misleading, and of little help. The book is better adapted for medical than for pharmaceutical students, and is designed for a text-book rather than for a reference work. Booklets. Successful Pharmacy and Tested Formulas for Pharmacists is a long booklet...
